

Terms of Use

The following are the terms and conditions or "Terms" that govern use of this Arrow (as defined below) website (the "Site"). By using or visiting the Site, you expressly agree to be bound by these Terms and all applicable laws and regulations governing the Site. Arrow Electronics, Inc., its subsidiaries and/or affiliates ("Arrow") reserve the right to change these Terms at any time, effective immediately upon posting on the Site. If you violate these Terms, Arrow may terminate your use of the Site, bar you from future use of the Site, and/or take appropriate legal action against you. You agree that Arrow owns all intellectual property rights to all content and software on the Site.

If you have comments, questions or requests please write to webmaster@arrow.com.

Permitted Use

You agree that you are only authorized to visit and view pages of this Site for your own personal use, and that you shall not duplicate, publish, modify or otherwise distribute the material on this Site for any purpose other than as set forth herein. You may only use the Site as permitted by law, including applicable export and re-export laws and regulations. The software on this Site and any content posted by Arrow on the Site is the property of Arrow and/or its suppliers and is protected by U.S. and international copyright laws. You agree that you will not remove, obscure or alter any legal notices displayed on the Site. You agree that you will not use the Site (i) in connection with or to promote any products, services, or materials, (ii) in any manner or for any purpose that violates any law or regulation, any right of any person, including but not limited to intellectual property rights, rights of privacy, or rights of personality, or (iii) to post any information that disparages or defames any person or entity.

Links & Search Results

By using the Site to search for or link to another site, you agree and understand that you may not make any claim against Arrow for any damages or losses, whatsoever, resulting from your use of the Site to obtain search results or to link to another site.

Access & Interference

You agree that you will not use any robot, spider, other automatic device, or manual process to monitor or copy our Web pages or the content contained thereon, to access or capture data, or for any other unauthorized purpose without our prior express written permission of Arrow. You agree that you will not use any device, software or routine to interfere or attempt to interfere with the proper working of the Site. You agree that you will not take any action that imposes an unreasonable or disproportionately large load on our infrastructure. You agree that you will not copy, reproduce, alter, modify, create derivative works, or publicly display any content (except for your own personal, non-commercial use) from our Web site without the prior expressed written permission of Arrow.

Accounts

Certain functionality on this Site may require the use of an Arrow Account. You or your employer ("Customer") may create your own Arrow Account or one may be assigned to you by Arrow. Customer is solely responsible for maintaining the security of the IDs and passwords, for insuring that none are made available for any purpose to anyone other than Customer's employees, and for insuring that employees do not share their specifically assigned IDs or passwords with anyone at all, or share a floating ID and password with anyone other than the Customer's employees. If Customer wishes to revoke an access ID and password, which it may do at any time and must do immediately in the event of the termination of any employee using one, Customer will notify Arrow of such revocation. Arrow will invalidate the ID and password and, if requested by Customer, will provide replacements. If you suspect that someone else knows or has changed your password, please reset it so no one else can sign in to your account.

Unauthorized Use of The Site

Illegal and/or unauthorized uses of the Site, including, but not limited to unauthorized framing of or linking to the Site, or unauthorized use of any robot, spider or other automated device on the site, will be investigated and appropriate legal action will be taken, including without limitation civil, criminal and injunctive redress. You agree that you will comply with any security processes and procedures (such as passwords) specified by Arrow with respect to access to or use of the Site. Further, you agree not to access or attempt to access any areas of or through a Site which are not intended for general public access, unless you have been provided with written authorization to do so by Arrow.

User Content

The Site may allow you to create or otherwise submit information, data, text, messages, or other materials ("User Content"). You may not place or send any User Content or information over this system that violates any law or infringes on the rights of any third party. For example, information known to fall under the requirements of the International Traffic in Arms Regulations (ITAR) or Export Administration Regulations (EAR) should not be placed on or sent over this system. In those instances where you store information that is intended to be used only by you (or someone representing you) and/or Arrow, Arrow claims no ownership or control over any User Content submitted, posted or displayed by you on or through the Site. You or a third party licensor, as appropriate, retain all patent, trademark and copyright rights to any User Content you submit, post or display on or through the Site and you are responsible for protecting those rights, as appropriate. When you enter, upload or otherwise submit User Content to the Site that is intended to be available to members of the public or others you have chosen to share it with, you give Arrow a worldwide license to use, host, store, reproduce, modify, communicate and distribute such User Content as intended. This license continues even if you stop using our Site (for example, User Content posted for a forum). Arrow reserves the right to delete or eliminate any User Content you provide that it deems improper or inappropriate. You represent and warrant you have the necessary rights to grant Arrow this license for all User Content submitted to the Site.

Violation of The Terms

You understand and agree that in Arrow's sole discretion, and without prior notice, Arrow may terminate your access to the Site, or exercise any other remedy available if Arrow believes that your use is (i) inconsistent with these Terms or (ii) has violated the rights of Arrow, another user or the law. You agree that monetary damages may not provide a sufficient remedy to Arrow for violations of these terms and conditions and you consent to injunctive or other equitable relief for such violations. Arrow may release user information about you if required by law or subpoena, or if the information is necessary or appropriate to release to address an unlawful or harmful activity.

Copyright

Unless otherwise specified, the copyrights in all copyrightable subject matter on the Site are either owned by Arrow or used lawfully by Arrow. You may not copy or display for redistribution to third parties any portion of the Site without the prior written permission of Arrow. Documents posted by Arrow on the Site may contain other proprietary notices or describe products, services, processes or technologies owned by Arrow or third parties. Nothing contained herein shall be construed by implication, estoppel or otherwise as granting to the user a license under any copyright, trademark, patent or other intellectual property right of Arrow or any third party.
